A message from Pastor Kaila ...

At the annual meeting we voted on our community covenant. This has been part of the Healthy Start process. One of our goals is to grow in deeper relationship with God and with each other through communication. The beginning statement of the covenant says "As members of the Christian community of Lutheran Church of Our Redeemer in Fort Morgan we commit, with the help of God to relate to each other through Christ, and thus hold ourselves and each other to;" 12 things.

As I have stated the past couple of months, each month I will focus on one of the 12 things - on what it means and how God and our call as Christians help us live into this covenant that we have made with God and with each other. In February, I spoke on the first point in the covenant to "Listen to each other," in March I spoke on the second point of the covenant to "Respect the privacy of those who confide," in April I spoke on the third point, "Challenge each other with the truth. Be willing to confront when it is important," in May I spoke on the fourth point on how we are to "Deal with people directly," in June I spoke on "Strengthen each other." And in July I spoke on "Being gentle with one another."

In the month of August when our summer vacations and adventures are coming to an end, we may find ourselves beginning to get into a routine; our seventh point in our covenant is that:

We commit, with the help of God, to relate to each other through Christ, and thus hold each other to:

- Do not speak ill of others in the fellowship. "Beloved, do not grumble against one another so that you may not be judged. See, the Judge is standing at the doors!" James 5:9

I just spent a week in Detroit with 30,000 Lutheran youth and youth leaders and over and over again we heard the call to love our neighbors and to RISE UP TOGETHER. One of the artists, Agape, (who is a Lutheran rapper) had t-shirts that said "Love your Haters". Here at LCOR we just recently finished vacation Bible school and each day had a theme; Even though you're left out ... Jesus loves you. Even though you're different ... Jesus loves you. Even when you don't understand ... Jesus loves you. Even though you do wrong ... Jesus loves you. Even when you're afraid ... Jesus loves you.

I think that both events, the youth gathering and VBS, are both lessons that we all need to hear, not just the youth of the church, but young and old alike. When we speak ill of others we are hurting the Body of Christ - when we say hurtful, hate filled things - it hurts our fellow brother and sister in Christ. Instead, we are called to love others, even our haters. We are called to rise up against those who say hurtful, hate filled things against others and ourselves—to tell them that it is not okay to say those things. Jesus was constantly Rising Up for others and we are called to Rise Up too!

Prayer: Loving God, help us to speak love towards one another, help us to have faith in you to show each other grace, love, and forgiveness. Help us to continue to reconcile our relationships so that we can be in right, honest, loving relationships with our brothers and sisters. That will lead to growing into a deeper, caring, loving relationship with you and with one another! Give us courage and strength to RISE UP against hatred, oppression, racism, sexism, ageism, and all that tear down love. Help us to show one another the unconditional love that You show us! Amen.

God's Peace & Love,
Pastor Kaila

"Reading is to the mind what exercise is to the body."

-Sir Richard Steele

"The Reapers' Song" is the fourth of the Red River series. Ever so slowly the Dakota Territory is being transformed from a vast prairie into rich farm lands. They are reaping the promised harvest that had drawn them from their homes in Norway to cross the Atlantic. With the coming of the railroad and shipments of wheat to larger markets, the small town of Blessing begins to prosper in 1886. The family trials and tribulations and love are so fascinating that reading these books are so enjoyable.

"Trivia, a Quiz Game of Questions from the Bible" - both the Old and New Testament is available in the library. There are over 2,000 questions and can be played by any number of players - ages 8 to adult. It's fun and really tests your Bible knowledge. Pastor Kaila has given us this game, and also the DVD "Heaven is for Real." This is based on an incredible true story and is a must-see for the whole family.

The book "A Time to Mourn, a Time to Dance" gives help for the losses in life. The poems, Bible verses, and articles are resources of comfort and support - in death, illness, injury, divorce, job loss, and how to give help to others. Thank you, Vickie, for donating this book, and to Pastor Kaila and the Goodman's for their gifts to the library!

The LCOR WELCA annual rummage sale will be Fri., August 14 from 8:00 a.m. - 4:00 p.m. and Sat., August 15 from 8:00 a.m. - 2:00 p.m. If you are female, you are a WELCA member! This is the main fundraiser for WELCA. It funds congregational gifts, donations to Lutheran charities, a charity which translates the Bible into different languages, kitchen supplies and coffee for fellowship, meats for funeral meals, and so many more things! We ask your support!

We would like to ask you to go through your homes and find things which you do not use to donate to our sale! We ask that clothing be laundered and appliances in working order. We cannot accept the old desktop computers and monitors since the charities will not accept them if they are unsold. I did sell the four TVs donated last year, so we will accept them. We also ask you to donate plastic grocery bags and newspapers to wrap glassware.

We need women and men to help us prepare for the sale on Sunday, August 9 after the service and fellowship. On that day, we remove all the chairs, move tables, bring in display tables, set up the clothing racks, bring things down from the attic, and in from the donation room. We really need everyone's help that morning!

We need help posting signs with tape and thumbtacks all over towns in the businesses, restaurants, and shops you use! Flyers will be available for you to post. We also need them posted in the local motels and other places where our customers might see them. People see our posters far more than they read the newspapers! Please ask permission to post our signs!

All during the week, we sort, clean, hang, and display donations to get ready for the sale. Whether you are a morning person or an afternoon person, you can come anytime you are able to help us! Work and rest as you are able! We keep some coffee and snacks ready for breaks! We have lots of fun chatting as we work.

On Saturday at about 2:00 p.m., we start packing up everything unsold to box and bag for donations. It is a huge job; so again, we need the help of many! We need to take all the clothing off the hangers and pack it, get the hangers returned to the attic, the clothing racks are taken apart and returned to the garage, the display tables need to be carried out to the garage, and all the boxes need to be taken to the last Sunday school room to await pick up by a charity.

So you see, there are so many opportunities to serve and help us to raise money! Besides that, come to shop! You never know what you will find! We will also have our Rada knives and cutlery for sale. Thanks so much for your support!

Ask, Thank, Tell ...

As the Stewardship Committee reads the book, Ask, Thank, Tell, by Charles Lane, the committee members will be summarizing each chapter for the monthly newsletters.

This month, I will summarize Chapter Two: It All Belongs to God.

As we think of the "gifts" that God has given us, we tend to think that these gifts belong to us. We believe that we are the ultimate owners of the things that we believe are in our control. In actuality, God created ALL that is and continues to own ALL of it. The biblical truth is that it ALL belongs to God. There was no transfer of ownership.

We have the privilege and responsibility to care for and be stewards of all that we have been given. Do not say to yourself, "My power and the might of my own hand have gotten me this wealth or these abilities". Remember the Lord, your God, for it is He who gives you ALL of these powers and abilities. Being a steward means to take care of what is given to us. We are tempted to take credit when all things are going well and it seems to be human nature to blame someone else when things do not go well. Remember... God is the source of ALL wisdom and tenacity. It is God who gives you power to obtain wealth, the brains that allow you to earn a living and to succeed in your endeavors, and the strength to do all that you do.

God is the source of ALL abilities and resources. The proper response to all of these blessings is NOT to pat yourself on your back. The proper response is to give God the glory, honor, and thanks, and to prayerfully ask God how to use what He has entrusted to you, both financially and with your talents and abilities. God calls us to great and wonderful things. God provides us generously with all of the resources we need to do what God is calling us to do. Let's celebrate this!

Congregation!

On behalf of the LCOR Relay For Life team, I would like to extend a huge THANK YOU for your continued support of Relay For Life and helping the American Cancer Society!!! This year, our team consisted of Bob Dorn, Reid Ernst, Rockie Ernst, Rowana Ernst, Ryan Ernst, Roxie Larson, and Dillon Donaghy. We also had several other individuals who helped us out with our walking throughout the twelve hour event. Morgan County Relay For Life raised $71,547.32 for the American Cancer Society. There were 31 teams, with a total of 302 registered participants. The LCOR team ranked 7th in the amount of dollars raised, bringing in $1,926.59!!! Our team was classified as a "Rising Star Team," having raised over $1,000. Those dollars came from generous donations of members of our congregation, family, and friends. Funds were also raised with the sale of homemade donuts, tomato plants, luminarias, cotton candy, Gatorades, and leather bookmarks and leather ribbon key chains.

Please consider joining our church team next year! The Relay is so inspirational as we remember those who are fighting cancer, and those who have lost the fight but won their place in heaven! Thank you for the luminarias placed in honor or memory of your family members. Thanks again for supporting the LCOR Relay For Life Team!!! Celebrate! Remember! Fight Back!

Rowana Ernst

P.S. If any past LCOR Relay For Life participants still have their purple shirts we ordered for Relay and you no longer wear or want it, I would like to gather them up for our future team participants to wear. Thanks!

Vocation is bigger than your job. It is your baptismal life in the world-the way you respond to God's call and grace. It is as big as your life in the world. Dr. Kurt Hendel, recently retired faculty member from Lutheran School of Theology at Chicago, joins Pastors Zach Parris and Ron Roschke to explore how we engage in this baptismal vocation. The workshop will offer tools and practices for discerning your vocation. We'll spend the morning exploring a Lutheran theology of vocation/work with Dr. Hendel. After lunch, we'll have breakout sessions to explore how you might explore the theology of vocation in your context. One of the options will provide training to be a mentor for Lutheran Campus Ministry at CU-Boulder's vocational discernment program, 'El Camino Colorado.'

Community Covenant

As members of the Christian community of Lutheran Church of Our Redeemer in Fort Morgan we commit, with the help of God, to relate to each other through Christ, and thus hold ourselves and each other to:

1. Listen to each other. “Let everyone be quick to listen, slow to speak...” James 1:19. Dietrich Bonhoeffer stated: “The first service that one owes to others in the fellowship consists of listening to them.” Life Together p. 97
2. Respect the privacy of those who confide. “A gossip goes about telling secrets, but one who is trustworthy in spirit keeps a confidence.” Proverbs 11:13
3. Challenge each other with the truth. Be willing to confront when it is important. “Rather speaking the truth in love, we are to grow up in every way into him who is the head, into Christ, from whom the whole body, joined and knit together by every ligament with which it is equipped, as each part is working properly, promotes the body’s growth in building itself up in love.” Ephesians 4:15-16
4. Deal with people directly. Don’t complain to others. “If another member of the church sins against you, go and point out the fault when the two of you are alone” Matthew 18:15. If someone complains to you about another member, help that person follow this principle.
5. Strengthen each other. “[Speak] only what is useful for building up ... so that your words may give grace to those who hear” Ephesians 4:29. “The test of true ... Christian community is that it serves to make the individual free, strong and mature,” not “weak and dependent.” Bonhoeffer, p. 88
6. Be gentle with one another. “My friends, if anyone is detected in a transgression, you who have received the Spirit should restore such a one in a spirit of gentleness.” Galatians 6:1
7. Do not speak ill of others in the fellowship. “Beloved, do not grumble against one another so that you may not be judged. See, the Judge is standing at the doors!” James 5:9
8. Do not judge each other. “Therefore you have no excuse, whoever you are, when you judge others; for in passing judgment on another you condemn yourself, because you, the judge, are doing the very same things.” Romans 2:1
9. Pray for one another. “Therefore confess your sins to one another, and pray for one another, so that you may be healed. The prayer of the righteous is powerful and effective.” James 5:16
10. Confess your sins to one another. James 5:16
11. Forgive one another. “Forgive, and you will be forgiven; give and it will be given to you.” Luke 6:37b-38a
12. Freely participate in the Body of Christ according to your gifts and talents. “As you go, proclaim the good news, ‘The kingdom of heaven has come near.’” Matthew 10:7
