LCOR Cottage Meeting Highlights

Interested. Apprehensive. Confused. Anxious. Uncomfortable. These are just a few of the feelings shared by congregation members at the start of the Cottage Meeting on July 21.

Writing down and sharing our feelings is how we began Pastor Ruby's event so we could all get to know each other better. After sharing, everyone went outside to find something that connected with them and the church. Who connected with rocks? Who connected with blooming flowers? Who connected with spent flowers? When we finished explaining our objects and the connections, we then got into groups with the directions that our team was to draw a house with one continuous line. We could not talk, gesture, or look at each other while our houses took shape. Our products show how we all made different structures, but each was done very well. We learned we could accomplish a goal and work together with kindness, understanding, and acceptance of ideas different from our own.

Through all the activities, we shared laughter and formed new and stronger bonds with all who were involved. Even before we sat down to the wonderful lunch provided by Pastor Ruby and the talented cooks of LCOR, feelings and emotions had changed. The people of LCOR learned a bit more about themselves and each other. We ended our time together with different words. Satisfied. Fun. Happy. Calmer. Hopeful.

This article was respectfully written and submitted by Karen Liston, as Pastor Ruby has been and is recovering from Covid.

Piano News

LCOR has always been blessed with musically talented members. As time moves on, we are entering a new era with our dedicated pianists. Crystal Sneed is no longer able to play for our church as life has gotten just too busy. We thank her for her many years of beautiful music that have contributed to our services and special programs over the years. We pray for blessings in all that Crystal will be pursuing.

Diane Nicklas has graciously offered to play each Sunday in August. Her time and talents are very appreciated. With that said, we are in need of another person two times monthly, beginning in September and continuing forward.

We have been reaching out to find that special person. If you know of someone who plays piano and/or the organ, please talk with them and let them know we have an open position. If you or they have any questions, please feel free to contact the church office. We can provide the details of the position.

Thank you for keeping your ears and eyes open to find another musically talented person!

WELCA'S ON-LINE SALE

WELCA will sell donated items on-line this summer and into the fall in place of having a rummage sale inside the church building. WELCA is asking for donations of items which can be sold, such as dishes, pots and pans, silverware, utensils, home decor, and small furniture. Please refrain from donating clothes, shoes, etc. as these are often difficult to sell on-line. If you have any items you would like to donate, but are unsure about the donation of the items, please contact one of the WELCA Board members. Items can be placed in the Sunday School rooms on the east side of the hallway. Tables will be available for your items. Thank you, WELCA Board
